Missions Mobilization is excited to offer North American opportunities to Mississippi churches for strategic engagement. Our response to the Frontier and Finger Lakes Associations in New York is a direct result of our being invited by the New York Convention Executive Director, Terry Robertson. The Ohio connections are in response to the Ohio Convention's invitation by Duane Floro, State Partnership Director. Each of the associations' missionaries are visionary and desire our assistance. Friendships with Mississippi have already begun.

Many types of needs exist. The priority is for planting churches. Your church could network with a new church plant in Indiana or New York, providing much needed prayers, resources and volunteers.

Other opportunities for community ministry, prayer-walking and construction have also been identified as priorities for Mississippi. A network of churches is needed to provide financial support and volunteer teams.

Other connections with places like West Virginia, Montana, and Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, also exist as North American opportunities.

Please let us know how we can assist you in becoming strategically involved in North America.

“The Missions fields are white unto harvest on the north coast of Ohio.”

The Northcoast Baptist Association presents a place for mission minded people to harvest.

There are many opportunities for short and long term ministry in starting and strengthening churches.

Dan Duffy

Northcoast Baptist Association

“Join us in the work so that the lostness of our region can be impacted for the glory of God through the life-changing gospel of Jesus Christ.”

The Finger Lakes region in upstate New York consists of eleven counties stretching from Lake Ontario to the Pennsylvania border. It has a population of 1.5 million people, with only 4% evangelical in their beliefs. Over 30% of the people are “cultural Catholics” and more than 51% have no religious affiliation.

David Williams

Finger Lakes Baptist Association

“We continue to see God’s hand at work orchestrating every aspect of the Baptist Center... We minister to and share God’s love with many who have physical, spiritual, and financial needs.”

The Savannah Baptist Center exists to glorify God by meeting the spiritual and physical needs of the communities that surround the Center through developing Christ-centered families, mobilizing churches and individual Christians to use their God-given skills in ministry and to provide opportunities to strengthen the Baptist Center Church.
