SPECIAL GUEST AUTHOR: RACHEL HAUCK

Rachel Hauck is a New York Times Bestselling, award-winning author living in sunny central Florida with her husband, a pastor.

Her book, Once Upon A Prince, first in the Royal Wedding Series, was filmed for an Original Hallmark movie and aired in April 2018. It was the #1 show for it's time slot and #3 for the week in cable programming.

A member of the Executive Board for American Christian Fiction Writers, she teaches workshops and leads worship at the annual conference.

A graduate of Ohio State University (Go Bucks!) with a degree in Journalism, she's a devoted Ohio State football fan.

Conferences

- CELEBRATING YOUR CHURCH HISTORY

Churches can benefit from celebrations and commemorations of historical events. This class will look at all that can be included in a celebration, including outlines for basic to comprehensive celebrations. We'll cover the basics for church histories, historical markers, promotional ideas, oral histories, and more.

- CHURCH HISTORY PROJECTS

Explore, in more detail, unique projects to help promote church history. Learn more details about oral histories, time capsules, historical calendars, books of remembrance, and more.

- CONCOURSE Q&A

An open Q&A time to ask about various features of Concourse that will help your library minister to individuals and groups that use it.

- DEWEY FOR THE EXPERTS

This conference is specifically planned for librarians who have experience in classifying and subject cataloging. Unravel the mystery of the Dewey numbers and the Sears subject headings in order to have correct placement.

- DISCIPLE MAKING CENTERS

Many church library ministries are taking steps to focus and support “disciple making” and are finding ways to be the “center” of the action. Let’s look at ideas and examples then brainstorm how we can be involved in reaching the lost, supporting leaders, teachers, missions, individuals, and groups in disciple making.

- DO YOU KNOW WHERE YOUR TEENS ARE?

We'll share some ideas to help connect with teens, have an impact on the lives, and set up a teen library.

- HOW DOES MEDIA GET CHOSEN?

Books, audio books, DVDs, kits: all of these items provide great opportunities to share God's love with your church family. This session will provide reasons for selection policies along with a few sources and ideas for purchases.

- POLICIES FOR THE LIBRARY

Establishing policies for your library will give it direction for a successful ministry. We will consider policies needed immediately and others for future needs.

- PROMOTION: ACTIVITIES

Dare to go beyond promotion using print! This class will have tons of ideas for your library patrons to become INVOLVED.

- RESEARCHING & WRITING A CHURCH HISTORY

The idea of writing a church history can be overwhelming. This class will help in planning and research; locating resources in your church, at the MBHC, your public library and other archives; selecting a writer; and other details to consider.

- TEAM BUILDING

Each team member is unique. The work of the church library ministry is multifaceted and has a place of service for all who are called to serve. Learn how to connect the dots.

- THE CHURCH ARCHIVE

Wondering where to start when preserving your church history? Church history is more than meeting minutes and membership lists. Find out what items you should be collecting and saving, and how to preserve those items for future generations.

- THE CHURCH LIBRARY IN THE DIGITAL AGE AND SOCIAL MEDIA

It is easy to become insulated and comfortable in a cozy church library cocoon. We will look at global trends (ex. communication through social media, technology, storage, availability of data, maker movement, the aging population, etc.) that might impact what we do and how we do it. We will develop strategies to remain relevant in a changing world in our unique situations while still being true to our calling to provide TRUTH and equip patrons for the future.

- WHAT HAPPENS BEFORE SHELVING?

Making purchases of media -- books, audio books, DVDs, multi-media kits, die cut materials -- creates opportunities to devise a system for processing or preparing items for circulation. But don't panic! Fortunately, many of these decisions have been made for you! Come and see!

- WHERE DO I BEGIN?

Starting a library or beginning the library team experience can generate a lot of questions! Where do I begin? Who will help me? How do I find supplies? Ask your questions! Answers available here!

- WHO CHOOSES THOSE NUMBERS?

Let's take a brief look at the Dewey Decimal System and Sears Subject Headings, including where to get help with finding that information! Discover why every member of the library team should be familiar with "Dewey and Sears" and know how the library is arranged as well as how to show others where items are located.

NEW SCHEDULE

This event is a one-day program so all those folks who in the past have said they cannot get off from work...can come. All those folks who have said they could not want to be gone from home two days...can come. We hope to see you there!
